Dear Borui,

On behalf of the University of Victoria, I am pleased to offer you conditional admission beginning in September 2014. Congratulations on your academic achievement!

This offer is conditional upon receipt of all required documentation and meeting the minimum standards (courses and grades) as outlined on the reverse of this letter. It is your responsibility to ensure that all conditions of your admission have been met prior to the first day of classes. Your required documents must arrive in our office no later than August 1st.

Please read the reverse of this letter carefully. It provides important details about any conditions of your offer, your current status and instructions for the steps you must follow before registering for courses. To view any outstanding items on the admission checklist, login to My UVic Application at www.uvic.ca/application. Incomplete checklist items may affect your ability to register in courses that have specific prerequisites, your transfer credit evaluation, and/or fee assessment. If you have questions about the information provided in this letter, please contact Undergraduate Admissions as soon as possible.

The faculty, staff and students of UVic hope that you will find your studies here both challenging and rewarding.

Yours truly,

Ada Saab

IMPORTANT NOTES

Status of Your Academic Writing Requirement (AWR): Not yet satisfied. Most students will select ENGL 135, 146 or 147 to complete the Academic Writing Requirement. However, you may also benefit from registering in a preparatory class prior to completing your required course. For more information and a self-placement questionnaire to help determine the best course for you, see <http://registrar.uvic.ca/awr> or consult your advisor.

NEXT STEPS

Now that you've been admitted, there are a number of steps that you must follow, starting by letting us know if you plan to attend UVic. Don't forget to use your verification code (listed below) when confirming your offer. All the details are outlined at www.uvic.ca/admitted.

Registration for September and January courses begins in late June. A pre-registration email providing further details will be sent to you in late May.

February 28, 2014

Congratulations, Borui!

It is my great pleasure to offer you admission to the University of Victoria. I'm delighted to share this news with you and to welcome you to the UVic family.

Your academic achievement and personal accomplishments will certainly enrich our diverse community and contribute to the university's dynamic learning environment.

With a legacy dating back more than a century, UVic's reputation for excellence has continued to grow because of enthusiastic students like you who bring a passion for discovery, the confidence to challenge ideas and the commitment to make a difference in our rapidly changing world.

As a UVic student you'll enjoy the many benefits of living and learning at one of Canada's top-ranked universities in a spectacular natural location that is second to none. You'll meet other exceptional students from across the globe who will become your life-long friends. You'll participate in research and share in the excitement of intellectual discovery alongside award-winning faculty. You'll collaborate with community and learn experientially through co-op work terms at home or abroad. You'll question, imagine, celebrate and play, and be challenged in ways you have yet to imagine.

Once again, congratulations and welcome to the next chapter of your life at UVic, Borui. I look forward to personally welcoming you to campus in September.

Sincerely,

Jamie Cassels, QC
President and Vice-Chancellor
